

Nabeel's Journey: Discussion Questions

34. A Very Special Guest: My Dad

- Do you think that making a video with his father was something that is positive and therapeutic for Nabeel?
- Nabeel and his father have had conflict in the past over faith issue, do you feel that doing this video may have assisted them both in letting unresolved issues go and focus on the present?
- When you are in a position where you need others to support you, have you found that your pride and independence can be a roadblock to receiving care?
- When others are trying to assist or support you, do you tend to approach it as a burden or something you are grateful for?
- Have you ever found yourself in a position where decisions had to be made and you just couldn't make the decision without God?
 - How did you ultimately come to realize what the proper decision was?
- How does it make you feel to see that Nabeel knows he will be harshly criticized by Christians for doing this video with his father who is a professing Muslim?
 - Because his father knows Nabeel's beliefs, would it be more Christlike for Nabeel to continue doing what he is doing or pushing his parents away since they have consciously rejected Jesus?
