

Nabeel's Journey: Discussion Questions

32. Health Update and More on Communal Faith

- Had you ever considered that on those occasions when people were raised from the dead, other potential doubters were sent away?
  - Do you think this is because the healing couldn't occur in the presence of those who don't believe it can happen?
  - Is it possible that if a non-believer witnessed something like a dead person being raised, it would almost force their belief, and as such abridge their freewill?
- Do you feel like you have the same power to perform miracles as the apostles?
  - If so, how are you exercising those gifts?
  - If not, do you believe it is possible?
- What is holding us back from being a church filled with miracles and the supernatural actions of God?
