

Nabeel's Journey: Discussion Questions

42. Palliative Care

- Did you ever expect Nabeel's condition to become so dire?
 - At the point that doctors have given up is it realistic to expect a miracle, or is the the time you would expect it most?
- If you found yourself in this situation, would you be making video updates and discussing your journey still?
 - What does this tell you about the kind of person that Nabeel is?
- "Where does my faith need to be, versus I as a believer and a real person, where can I actually find my faith?"
 - Do you believe that God understands/expects that Nabeel's faith in a miracle is falling short of the ideal?
 - Is it realistic to expect Nabeel to have complete unshakable faith for healing given the situation he finds himself in?
 - Does losing faith in a miracles have anything to do with losing faith in God?