- If you were in the middle of fighting cancer, would you worry about what you were getting done?
  - Isn't what we get accomplished a large part of how we define our success in life?
- Can you imagine actively recovering from chemoradiation and battling cancer and then making it a point to travel to the other side of the world and encourage persecuted pastors?
  - Has God ever called you to do something that appears to others as unfair to you or unreasonable?
    - If so, what fruit did that bear?
- Why do you think there are so many stories of visions and miracles (related to Jesus) in the Middle East right now?
- Nabeel is in a situation to be thankful to have seen his 34th birthday. Do you think this situation makes for a stressful or joyful celebration with friends and family?
- Have you ever discussed planning events into the future with someone who is chronically or terminally ill, and got an unexpected response?
