

Nabeel's Journey: Discussion Questions

19. Visitors, Radiation Side Effects, and Cautions about God's Will for Healing

- If prayer doesn't have any immediate effect other than encouragement, is it still beneficial and "of God"?
- If you had witnessed undeniable miracles, would it change the way you pray?
- If a person truly believes they will be healed then is it unreasonable to stop treatment and doctor's care?
 - Can God use doctors, tools, and treatments to recognize a miracle?
- Have you ever known anyone who needed God's intervention and didn't receive it?
 - Did it ever cross your mind that they had a lack of faith?
 - Has your faith ever been shaken when someone close to you is not healed and then passes away?
- Dr. William Lane Craig pushed back on Nabeel's view of God's will for healing.
 - Do you think there was a risk that he would really discourage Nabeel?
 - Do you think it was a loving thing to challenge Nabeel about healing?
 - Since Nabeel is teaching others, is Dr. Craig obligated to challenge any possible error in Nabeel's views?
