

Nabeel's Journey: Discussion Questions

22. Worshiping When Your Hurting

- Have you been in a situation where you were so ill or out of sorts that you felt like you were in a fog?
- Most of us are thankful when we get the primary things we need/want. Are you thankful in your prayer life when you aren't getting what you want?
- Do you make it a special point to worship and praise God in your prayer times?
- Does prayer have specific formulas or guidelines? (Lord's Prayer)
 - If God knows our heart and our state of mind, is it realistic to think that He is always holding us to a standard...and that the standard never changes?
- The idea of believing in faith that you will be healed even when you don't know can be seen by others as anything from wishful thinking to cognitive dissonance.
 - How do you deal with this?
 - The skeptic ultimately doesn't believe that prayer can work, what is the Christian's foundation for believing it will? (Mark 11:23-24)
